

September Newsletter

The spring rains have come early, bringing the promise of green grass and veld flowers, cold Castles and braaivleis once again.

Also, a few days grace to put the finishing touches to that AV which you are entering into our closed AV Makers club competition (details below).

AV Makers in Cape Town

Juan is doing sterling work in Cape Town. They have held one Saturday morning event and the following are planned:

13 Sept, 18 Oct, 8 Nov and 6 Dec at ORMS

Contact Juan for details (cybropath@gmail.com)

Jeff visiting Australia

Jeff will be in Australia from mid-September to mid-October. He will be attending the Australian annual photographic congress and doing a talk on the situation with AV in South Africa at an AV Club. He hopes to bring back new ideas to invigorate AV in South Africa.

AV Makers Internal Competition (closes 12th Sept)

The ABF time to give this to Jeff is at our AV Festival at King Edward's on 12 September.

The entry Rules are attached.

AV Festival 12th September

Edgar and Linda Gibbs are coming to Pretoria (and other places)

Keep Saturday 1st November open for dialogue with two well-known English AV Makers. This will be our last event of the year and will conclude with a Bring 'n Braai. More details later in the year.

They are also meeting AV workers in Cape Town, Knysna and Port Elizabeth. The Cape Town meeting is being organized by the CTPS AV group on 8th October. Details from joywellb@gmail.com.

2014 RPS International Festival

We hold thumbs for our members who have acceptances at this prestigious event. Results will be published in our next Newsletter.

Juan Venter: "Hullo World"
Johan Nieman: "The Origin of your Tweed Jacket"
Jeff Morris: "100 Years Later"
Johan Nieman: "Endinako"

Adri van Oudheusden also has an acceptance.

(Adri maintains a full list of national and international salons on the PSSA website.)

At the time of writing, the results of the East Rand AV Circuit are not available.

Subscriptions

To those of you who have perhaps forgotten, this is a reminder to quickly send an eft, to renew your membership. Bank details are on the website.

oooOooo

With best wishes
